

Dear Potential Client:

Thank you for your interest in WeatherTiger event support services. When it matters the most, we provide full-spectrum weather forecasting for your indoor or outdoor event, allowing you to best plan for conditions ahead of time and keep your guests safe when dangerous weather threatens.

WeatherTiger's team, led by Dr. Ryan Truchelut, has decades of experience successfully providing real-time forecasts for events including outdoor festivals, sports contests, weddings, school functions, corporate parties, and more. We are a nationally trusted weather authority, and our expert perspectives have been featured on CNN, BBC World News, USA Today, The Washington Post, and many more international media outlets.

Our package rates for standard event support forecasting services are listed below:

Basic Package: $350.

Ideal for one-day and smaller events. Package includes:

- Report containing historical weather norms for date and location of your event.
- Temperature, precipitation, wind, and humidity forecasts and threat discussion (written by human meteorologist!), sent 10, 7, 5, 3, 2, and 1 day(s) before event.
- Hour-by-hour forecast sent the day of event at an agreed-upon time.
- One 15-minute phone consultation prior to the event.

Premium Package: $750.

Ideal for large, multi-day events requiring intensive live forecasting support. Includes:

- All services included in Basic Package, with the additional of all forecasts and reports covering up to a three-day event window.
- Three hours of real-time forecasting during your event by a pro meteorologist, with unlimited phone, email, telepresence, or text weather support.
- Three 15-minute phone consultations prior to the event.

Add-ons: Additional forecast days ($150/each), in-person presence ($200 plus travel costs), additional hours of real-time forecast support ($75/hr), additional 15-minute phone consultations ($35/each).

We specialize in finding unique solutions to your weather challenges, and custom arrangements may be agreed upon with clients on a case-by-case basis. Don't bet the safety and success of your important event on a mindless, inaccurate weather app—trust the experienced professionals with a track record of success at WeatherTiger. We look forward to serving you at your next event.
